RN, MN, JD

Lorie A. Brown, RN, MN, JD, has enjoyed a life-long love of the nursing profession. After graduating from Indiana University School of Nursing with a BSN in 1982, she attended the University of California at Los Angeles School of Nursing and obtained a master's degree. As a dedicated nurse, Lorie practiced in medical surgical nursing, gynecology, urology, neurosurgery, orthopedics, general surgery and home health care. She also loved being a camp nurse at her three kids' summer camp for many years. Lorie still maintains her nursing license to this day.

Lorie is both a licensed nurse, and nurse attorney. She studied law at Indiana University, earning her J.D. in 1990. Still a nurse at heart, Lorie soon became an attorney for nurses. For over 30 years now, she has dedicated her law practice to representing nurses and other health professionals in need of professional license defense. Lorie currently works as a Nurse Attorney and the President of Brown Law Office, a National Law Firm for Nurses.

PROFILE

"When I was a nurse, I was an advocate for my profession. Now in law, I get to be a stronger advocate. I am able to help the individual nurse with their license matters. But I still wanted to make a difference on a broader scale. By speaking at nurses organizations and teaching in hospitals, I have been able to empower nurses in their practice and teach them how to protect their most valuable asset, their license."
